Joseph Southall - Walter Harlock

Joseph Edward Southall

Sold

REF: JS64

Sarah Colegrave Fine Art
London & Oxfordshire
+44 (0)77 7594 3722 sarah@sarahcolegrave.co.uk

Description

JOSEPH SOUTHALL, RWS, NEAC, RBSA(1861-1944)
Portrait of Walter Harlock
Inscribed l.r.: WEH / Banbury and signed and inscribed l.l.: 6.i.1893 / JESPencil 21.5 by 19.5 cm,; 8 ½ by 7 ¾ in.
Provenance:The artist’s cousin, Isabel Harlock, and thence by descent.
Walter Ernest Harlock (1866-1951) was the third son of John Harlock and Anne Baker, therefore first cousin to both Joseph and Bessie Southall. Born in Banbury, he studied at Manchester and London Universities before taking a professorship as a lecturer in English at Uppsala University and at the Royal Swedish Naval College in Stockholm where he remained until his retirement. A noted, lexicographer, he published Swensk-Engelsk Ordbok (Swedish- English Dictionary) in 1904 and a larger revised edition in 1936. In Sweden he was awarded the order of North Star.